Requirement for DAO Resolution

1.5 Unless otherwise specified herein, no Ordinary Resolution or Special Resolution passed by persons entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be valid or take effect until such Ordinary Resolution or Special Resolution has been approved by DAO Resolution.

1.6 For the purposes of these Articles (including Article 1.5), no DAO Resolution shall be required:

- (a) from the date of these Articles until such time as the board of directors resolves that the DAO is operational and is able to pass DAO Resolutions; or
- (b) following a resolution of the board of directors determining that the DAO has been terminated, has dissolved or has ceased operations for a period of not less than 15 Business Days, until such time as the board of directors resolves that the DAO is once again operational and able to pass DAO Resolutions or the DAO passes a DAO Resolution to the same effect.

1.7 Within 5 Business Days following the board resolution(s) set forth in Article 1.6, the Company shall provide notice of such resolution(s) to the DAO by way of DAO Notice.

2 Preliminary

Commencement of business

- 2.1 The business of the Company may be commenced immediately upon registration under the Laws.
- 2.2 The Company may ratify any contract or other transaction entered into in its name or on its behalf prior to registration.

Recovery of preliminary expenses

- 2.3 The preliminary expenses of incorporating the Company shall be paid by the Company, including any expenses concerning any contract or transaction ratified under Article 2.2.

3 Members

First Members

3.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum are the first Members of the Company.

Admission of new Members

3.2 Subject to these Articles, the directors may, if so authorised by an Ordinary Resolution, admit as a Member any person who has applied for membership in writing, and the terms of admission may restrict, enlarge or exclude any or all of the voting and other rights or powers of Members under these Articles, or provide for termination of membership at a specified time or in specified circumstances.

3.3 The Company by Special Resolution may restrict or prohibit the subsequent admission of Members. If the restriction or prohibition is expressed to be irrevocable, it may not be altered or revoked, directly or through an alteration of these Articles.

Termination of membership

3.4 A person's membership of the Company terminates:

- (a) if the person dies or, being a corporation, is dissolved;
- (b) if the person resigns as a Member by notice to the Company. The resignation shall be effective immediately unless the notice states otherwise; or
- (c) as provided in the person's terms of admission as a Member.

Company may be without Members

3.5 It is not a condition of this Article 3 that the Company continues to have one or more Members.

Nature of Members' rights and powers

3.6 The rights and powers of Members are free of any duty.

3.7 The rights and powers of Members are not assignable and, except as permitted by these Articles or required by law, the rights or powers of a Member may not be exercised by any other person on behalf of the Member.

4 Directors

Minimum number of directors

4.1 The Company shall at all times have at least one director.

First directors

4.2 The first directors may be appointed by the subscribers to the Memorandum.

No age limit

4.3 There is no age limit for directors save that they must be aged at least 18 years.

Corporate directors

Appointment of directors

4.5 Subject to Article 4.6, a director may be appointed by Ordinary Resolution. Any appointment may be to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.

4.6 Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, any person appointed as a director must resign from any positions of executive or managerial authority in the DAO before being appointed to their role as director. Where a director has not so resigned within 30 days of the date of the Ordinary Resolution appointing such director, the director's appointment shall expire null and void and the director shall not be appointed or, if the director has been appointed, such director shall immediately be removed as a director and the Secretary shall update the register of directors. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Article 4.6 shall prevent a director from exercising any voting right in the DAO that is granted to all DAO participants.

4.7 Notwithstanding the other provisions of these Articles, in any case where, as result of death the Company has no directors and no other persons are entitled to appoint directors, the personal representatives of the last Member or supervisor to have died have the power, by notice in writing to the Company, to appoint a person to be a director. For the purpose of this Article:

- (a) where two or more Members or supervisors die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger Member or supervisor is deemed to have survived an older Member or supervisor;
- (b) if the last Member or supervisor died leaving a will:
 - (i) the expression personal representatives of the last Member or supervisor means:
 - (A) until a grant of probate in respect of that will has been obtained from the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands, all of the executors named in that will who are living at the time the power of appointment under this Article is exercised; and

- (B) after such grant of probate has been obtained, only such of those executors who have proved that will;
- (ii) without derogating from section 3(1) of the Succession Law (Revised), the executors named in that will may exercise the power of appointment under this Article without first obtaining a grant of probate.

Removal of directors

4.8 A director may be removed by Ordinary Resolution.

Resignation of directors

4.9 A director may at any time resign office by giving to the Company notice in writing or, if permitted pursuant to the notice provisions, in an Electronic Record delivered in either case in accordance with those provisions.

4.10 Unless the notice specifies a different date, the director shall be deemed to have resigned on the date that the notice is delivered to the Company.

4.11 A notice of any director's resignation must also be given by the Company to the DAO by way of DAO Notice within 15 Business Days of the Company's receipt of such notice of resignation.

Termination of the office of director

4.12 A director's office terminates forthwith if:

- (a) the person is prohibited by the law of the Islands from acting as a director; or
- (b) the person dies or is made bankrupt or makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors generally, or, being a corporation, enters into winding-up or is dissolved; or
- (c) in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner by whom the person is being treated, the person becomes physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director; or
- (d) the person is made subject to any law relating to mental health or incompetence, whether by court order or otherwise; or
- (e) without the consent of the other directors, the person is absent from meetings of directors for a continuous period of six months.

Powers and duties of directors

- 4.13 Subject to the Laws, the Memorandum, these Articles and the Bylaws, the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by or under the control of the directors, who may exercise all the powers of the Company other than those that are required by these Articles or the Bylaws to be exercised by the general meeting or others.
- 4.14 The directors shall observe the Memorandum, these Articles and the Bylaws, and they shall at all times act in the interests of the Company and its objects.
- 4.15 No prior act of the directors shall be invalidated by any subsequent alteration of the Memorandum, these Articles and the Bylaws. However, to the extent allowed by the Laws, the persons entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company may by Special Resolution validate any prior or future act of the directors which would otherwise be in breach of their duties.
- 4.16 The duties of the directors are owed to the Company only.
- 4.17 Subject to any limitation imposed on any director pursuant to each director's fiduciary duties to the Company and all applicable law and these Articles, the directors shall observe, implement, carry out, action and execute with best efforts any and all DAO Resolutions.

Power to delegate any of the directors' powers to a committee

- 4.18 The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more persons. Persons on the committee may include non-directors so long as the majority of those persons are directors.
- 4.19 The delegation may be collateral with, or to the exclusion of, the directors' own powers.
- 4.20 The delegation may be on such terms as the directors think fit, including provision for the committee itself to delegate to a sub-committee; save that any delegation must be capable of being revoked or altered by the directors at will.
- 4.21 Unless otherwise permitted by the directors, a committee must follow the procedures prescribed for the taking of decisions by directors.

Power to appoint an agent of the Company

- 4.22 The directors may appoint any person, either generally or in respect of any specific matter, to be the agent of the Company with or without authority for that person to delegate all or any of that person's powers. The directors may make that appointment:
- (a) by causing the Company to enter into a power of attorney or agreement; or
 - (b) in any other manner they determine.

Power to appoint an attorney or authorised signatory of the Company

4.23 The directors may appoint any person, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the directors, to be the attorney or the authorised signatory of the Company. The appointment may be:

- (a) for any purpose;
- (b) with the powers, authorities and discretions;
- (c) for the period; and
- (d) subject to such conditions

as they think fit. The powers, authorities and discretions, however, must not exceed those vested in, or exercisable, by the directors under these Articles. The directors may do so by power of attorney or any other manner they think fit.

4.24 Any power of attorney or other appointment may contain such provision for the protection and convenience for persons dealing with the attorney or authorised signatory as the directors think fit. Any power of attorney or other appointment may also authorise the attorney or authorised signatory to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in that person.

Power to appoint a proxy

4.25 Any director may appoint any other person, including another director, to represent him at any meeting of the directors. If a director appoints a proxy, then for all purposes the presence or vote of the proxy shall be deemed to be that of the appointing director.

4.26 Articles 5.1 to 5.4 inclusive (relating to the appointment by directors of alternate directors) apply, mutatis mutandis, to the appointment of proxies by directors.

4.27 A proxy is an agent of the director appointing him and is not an officer of the Company.

Appointments to office

4.28 Subject to Article 4.38, the directors may appoint a director:

- (a) as chairman of the board of directors;
- (b) as managing director;
- (c) to any other executive office for such period and on such terms, including as to remuneration, as they think fit.

4.29 The appointee must consent in writing to holding that office.

- 4.30 Where a chairman is appointed he shall, unless unable to do so, preside at every meeting of directors.
- 4.31 If there is no chairman, or if the chairman is unable to preside at a meeting, that meeting may select its own chairman; or the directors may nominate one of their number to act in place of the chairman should he ever not be available.
- 4.32 Subject to Article 8 (dealing with the office of Secretary), Article 4.38 and the provisions of the Laws, the directors may also appoint any person, who need not be a director, to any office that may be required for such period and on such terms, including as to remuneration, as they think fit; and that Officer may be given any title the directors decide.
- 4.33 The Officer must consent in writing to holding that office.
- 4.34 A director, Secretary or other Officer of the Company may not the hold the office, or perform the services, of auditor.

Disclosure of information

- 4.35 The directors shall give to the DAO and to the general meeting (or the persons who have the right to attend the general meeting) such reports, accounts, information and explanations concerning:
- (a) the Company's business and affairs; and
 - (b) the discharge of the directors' duties and the exercise of their powers,
- as may be required by a DAO Resolution of the Company.
- 4.36 In addition, the directors may release or disclose to a third party any information regarding the Company's business and affairs, including any information contained in the register of members relating to a Member, (and they may authorise any director, Officer or other authorised agent of the Company to release or disclose to a third party any such information in his possession) if:
- (a) the Company or that person, as the case may be, is lawfully required to do so under the laws of any jurisdiction to which the Company is subject; or
 - (b) such disclosure is in accordance with any contract entered into by the Company; or
 - (c) the directors are of the opinion such disclosure would assist or facilitate the Company's operations.

Remuneration

- 4.37 Subject to Article 4.38, directors' and officers' remuneration shall be at such rates and on such terms as may be agreed in writing by an Ordinary Resolution of the Company. Unless that agreement provides otherwise, the remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day.
- 4.38 A director or officer shall only be remunerated for services rendered. Any agreement between the Company and a director or officer concerning the remuneration of such director or officer shall be null and void where such agreement:
- (a) entitles such director or officer to participate in any distribution, dividend or transfer of assets of the Company or awards or entitles such director or officer to any profits or any assets of the Company; or
 - (b) sets the remuneration according to a percentage of the turnover, income, profits or earnings of the Company; or
 - (c) agrees to remunerate the director or officer for an aggregate sum exceeding US$50,000 per annum, and the Company and each director or officer of the Company is prohibited from entering into any such agreement.

- 4.39 Remuneration may take any form and may include arrangements to pay pensions, health insurance, death or sickness benefits, whether to the director or to any other person connected to or related to him.
- 4.40 Unless his fellow directors determine otherwise, a director is not accountable to the Company for remuneration or other benefits received from any other company which is in the same group as the Company or which has common control.
- 4.41 Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, a director's or officer's entitlement to receive any remuneration that complies with Article 4.38 for services rendered shall not result in such director or officer being treated or designated as a beneficiary of the Company pursuant to the Law or these Articles.

5 Alternate directors

Appointment and removal

- 5.1 Any director may appoint any other person, including another director, to act in his place as an alternate director. No appointment shall take effect until the director has given notice of the appointment to the other directors. Such notice must be given to each other director by emailing to that director's email address an Electronic Record of the notice or a scanned copy of the notice as a PDF attachment (in each case, such notice being deemed to be the notice unless Article 21.7 applies), in which event notice shall be taken to be given on the date of receipt by the recipient in readable form. For the avoidance of doubt, the same email may be sent to the email address of more than one director (and to the email address of the Company pursuant to Article 5.4(c)).

- 5.2 Without limitation to the preceding Article, a director may appoint an alternate for a particular meeting by sending an email to his fellow directors informing them that they are to take such email as notice of such appointment for such meeting. Such appointment shall be effective without the need for a signed notice of appointment or the giving of notice to the Company in accordance with Article 5.4.
- 5.3 A director may revoke his appointment of an alternate at any time. No revocation shall take effect until the director has given notice of the revocation to the other directors. Such notice must be given by either of the methods specified in Article 5.1.
- 5.4 A notice of appointment or removal of an alternate director must also be given to the Company by any of the following methods:
 - (a) by emailing to the Company's email address a scanned copy of the notice as a PDF attachment or, otherwise, by emailing to the email address provided by the Company's registered office a scanned copy of the notice as a PDF attachment (in either case, the PDF version being deemed to be the notice unless Article 21.7 applies), in which event notice shall be taken to be given on the date of receipt by the Company or the Company's registered office (as appropriate) in readable form; or
 - (b) if permitted pursuant to the notice provisions, in some other form of approved Electronic Record delivered in accordance with those provisions in writing.

 - (a) if another director has been appointed an alternate director for one or more directors, he shall be entitled to a separate vote in his own right as a director and in right of each other director for whom he has been appointed an alternate; and

- (b) if a person other than a director has been appointed an alternate director for more than one director, he shall be entitled to a separate vote in right of each director for whom he has been appointed an alternate.

Minimum number of supervisors

6.1 The Company shall at all times have at least one supervisor.

First supervisor

6.2 The first supervisor shall be appointed by the subscribers to the Memorandum.

Appointment of supervisors

6.3 With the exception of the first supervisor, the DAO may direct by way of DAO Resolution that the directors appoint a person named in such DAO Resolution as a supervisor of the Company either as an additional supervisor or to replace a supervisor. For the avoidance of doubt, the directors cannot appoint any supervisor unless upon the instruction of a DAO Resolution.

6.4 Where the DAO has directed the directors by way of DAO Resolution to appoint an additional supervisor, the directors and the Secretary shall undertake all action required to ensure that the additional supervisor named by such DAO Resolution is properly appointed and registered in the register of supervisors of the Company.

6.5 Where the DAO has directed the directors by way of DAO Resolution to replace an existing supervisor, the directors shall:

- (a) appoint the new supervisor named in the DAO Resolution and, together with the Secretary, shall ensure that the new supervisor named by such DAO Resolution is registered in the register of supervisors of the Company; and
- (b) immediately following the proper appointment of the new supervisor, remove the outgoing supervisor.

6.6 Where no supervisor has been appointed or where all supervisors have for any reason either been removed or have resigned, the directors of the Company must appoint a temporary supervisor to fill such vacancy until such time as the DAO shall direct the appointment of a new supervisor by DAO Resolution. The temporary supervisor may be a director of the Company.

6.7 Any appointment of a supervisor may:

- (a) restrict, enlarge or exclude any or all of the voting and other rights or powers of supervisors under these Articles;
- (b) impose any supervisory or other duty or disability, grant a related exculpation, and waive conflicting interests or duties;

- (d) provide for the termination of the supervisor's appointment at a specified time or in specified circumstances.

Removal of supervisors

6.8 The DAO may direct by way of DAO Resolution that the directors remove a person named in such DAO Resolution as a supervisor of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, the directors cannot remove any supervisor unless upon the instruction of a DAO Resolution.

6.9 A supervisor may at any time resign office by giving to the Company notice in writing or, if permitted pursuant to the notice provisions, in an Electronic Record delivered in either case in accordance with those provisions.

6.10 Unless the notice specifies a different date, the supervisor shall be deemed to have resigned on the date that the notice is delivered to the Company.

6.11 A notice of any supervisor's resignation must also be given by the Company to the DAO by way of DAO Notice within 15 Business Days of the Company's receipt of such notice of resignation.

Termination of the office of supervisor

6.12 A supervisor's office shall terminate forthwith:

- (a) if the person dies or is made bankrupt or makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors generally or, being a corporation, enters into winding-up or is dissolved; or
- (b) if, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner by whom the person is being treated, the person becomes physically or mentally incapable of acting as a supervisor; or
- (c) if the person is made subject to any law relating to mental health or incompetence, whether by court order or otherwise; or
